MARK DOWNEY

HEAD COACH

FOURTH SEASON

Mark Downey is entering his fourth season as the Head Men's Basketball Coach at Arkansas Tech University.

Downey, who was named the 20th head coach of the Wonder Boys in April 2006 after spending five seasons as an assistant coach on Monte Towe's staff at the University of New Orleans, has compiled a 47-41 record at Tech and is 18-24 in GSC play.

Downey enjoyed his best season in his tenure at Arkansas Tech in 2008-09, leading the Wonder Boys to an 23-9 record and captured the school's first-ever Gulf South Conference Men's Basketball title and made it to its first-ever NCAA Division II Tournament appearance, where the Wonder Boys lost in the regional semifinals of the NCAA D-II South Regionals. Over the past two seasons, Downey has led the Wonder Boys to 41-20 overall record, a 17-11 mark in GSC games and two straight GSC Tournament appearances.

Prior to spending five seasons at UNO, Downey spent two years as the head coach at Independence Community College in Independence, Kan. While at Independence, he led the Pirates to a 50-20 record and was named the Region VI and Kansas Basketball Coaches Association Coach of the Year. In addition, he led ICC to the Jayhawk Eastern Conference title and a Region VI championship and led the school to the Region VI title game in 2001. Before assuming the head coaching role at Independence, Downey spent one season (1998-99) as assistant on Chris Jans' staff.

Prior to working at Independence, Downey spent two seasons as an administrative assistant coach at Marshall University, where he earned his master's degree in athletic administration and before that he began his coaching career at Barton College in 1995-96.

Downey, who graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1995 from the University of Charleston, was a standout player at UC where he played his final two seasons after transferring from Wheeling Jesuit College (1990-92). At Charleston, he was an All-WVIAC performer and helped Charleston to a WVIAC Tournament title in 1993. At Wheeling Jesuit, Downey was an All-WVIAC performer and holds the school record for three pointers made in a season (111). As a high school player at St. Francis [WV] H.S., Downey averaged 37.6 points per game as a senior in 1989-1990 and was a two-time First-Team All-State selection and was runner-up for the West Virginia High School Player of the year.

Downey, who is 37 years old, is married to the former Ericka Beavers of Branch, Ark., and the couple are the parents of a son, Bryce (4). Downey is a member of the NABC and FCA and appeared as one of Adolph Rupp's 'Runts' (Tommy 'Crash' Kron) in the 2004 motion picture "Glory Road", about the 1965 NCAA Basketball Championship game between Texas Western University and the University of Kentucky.
